The SATs/ACTs. Just hearing someone say the names of one of these tests is enough to make any high school student nauseous, as it forces them think about the inevitable day that they will have to sit down for three, long hours, and take a test that they hope they will get good enough scores on to get into the college of their choice.

Are The SATs/ACTs Worth The Stress They Cause Students?

The mathematics portion of the SAT is divided into two sections: Math Test – Calculator and Math Test – No Calculator. In total, the SAT math test is 80 minutes long and includes 58 questions: 45 multiple choice questions and 13 grid-in questions. The multiple choice questions have four possible answers; the grid-in questions are free response and require the test taker to provide an answer.
