Labor and capital have often been at odds in recent centuries. Labor costs can be very high for companies who look to minimize costs wherever possible. However, in poorer countries in particular, local and multinational companies often flaunt human rights and labor standards. Some companies can simply move to other parts of the world if people protest for fairer conditions.

Fashion, being what it is, comes and goes – giving us the phrase ‘being in fashion’. The idea of trends or styles that only last a short time before becoming dated is entirely incongruent in the world of logo design.. Successful fashion logos tend to be the ones that are iconic, simple and classic – they can adapt to fit any trend while remaining faithful to their constructed design base.
